Fresko Restaurant

Located on the top floor of Exedra Hotel Cappadocia, with its three-sided glass design offering panoramic views over Cappadocia's valleys and fairy chimneys, it presents distinguished flavors from international cuisine in a breathtaking setting.

Chapel Restaurant

Revived through the meticulous restoration of a historic chapel, this high-ceilinged venue offers a serene and distinctive setting for private events and refined gatherings. With 115 m² of space and a capacity of 80 guests, it hosts unforgettable occasions within the mystical ambiance of Cappadocia.

The image shows the interior of the Mahzen Restaurant, a rustic and sophisticated dining space. The walls are made of light-colored stone, and the ceiling features exposed wooden beams with white fabric draped over them. Several tables are set with white linens, glassware, and plates, surrounded by brown upholstered chairs. A staircase with a metal railing and wooden steps leads to an upper level. A wall-mounted painting of a woman in a blue dress is visible. The floor is paved with stone tiles. A large, decorative graphic of a wine barrel is overlaid on the left side of the image.

Mahzen Restaurant

Surrounded by the natural coolness of stone walls and the timeless ambiance of wine barrels, it is an intimate and sophisticated meeting place where distinguished wines are savored. The serene silence of the underground creates a unique setting for private tastings and unforgettable moments.

A photograph of a spa treatment room. The room features thick, textured stone walls and a vaulted ceiling. Two massage tables are covered with dark blue linens. In the background, there is a white sink on a stone countertop with a gold-framed octagonal mirror above it. A small arched window is visible on the right wall. The lighting is warm and ambient.

7 Ritual Spa

By blending traditional purification rituals with modern wellness practices, it creates a space for inner renewal. Offered within the protective serenity of stone walls, this experience invites guests to slow down, breathe deeply, and embrace the present moment.
